

Miss Edith E. Howden was married at the home of her father, William Howden, eleven miles west of town, last Wednesday at 8 p. m., to Mr. William A. Olmsted, a prominent young business man of Hannaford, Rev. J. G. Dingle, pastor of our city M. E. church, being the officiating clergyman. There were about fifty guests present at the wedding. After the ceremony had been performed and congratulations extended the party sat down to a very fine wedding supper. The newly married young people received many very beautiful as well as useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Olmsted departed on Friday of last week for New York state where they will visit friends. In the spring they will go to western Canada where they have a farm and will settle down. They are well known young people of the county and have a large circle of friends who will join with the Courier in wishing them a long and happy life.
