

The following announcement has been received which explains some of the mysterious trips the young bridegroom has been making up and down the Northern Pacific railroad recently: "Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hathaway announce the marriage of their niece Maude Cleveland to Mr. Paul C. Piatt on Saturday, February the sixth, nineteen hundred and nine, St. Paul, Minnesota. At home after March the first, Reeder, North Dakota." The county's school teachers and is a very estimable lady. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Piatt and is a rustler and all around good fellow. The Courier takes pleasure in extending to Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Piatt hearty congratulations, with the hope that their journey through life will be a happy and prosperous one. The newly wedded couple have gone to Reeder, N. D., where, in company with Mr. Dallas, Mr. Piatt has purchased a livery business.
