

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Qualey, old time residents of this county, and is so well known to a large circle of friends that it is unnecessary for further introduction on our part. The groom is the pastor of the Lutheran church of this city and is a gentleman admired and esteemed not only by his congregation but by a host of friends all over the county. The newly wedded young people will settle down to housekeeping in the near future and they have the heartiest best wishes and congratulations from a large circle of friends for a happy and useful life.

THOMPSON-LONGFELLOW.

The receipt of the following announcement is acknowledged by the COURIER:

"Mr. and Mrs. Walter Longfellow announce the marriage of their daughter, Maude Louise to Mr. Thor Adolph Thompson, on Thursday forenoon, March 25, Wadena, Minn. At home after June 1st, Cooperstown, N. D."

The bride is said to be one of Wadena's popular ladies. She has spent a few weeks in this city and has made a number of friends during that time. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Knud Thompson, was born in Cooperstown, and is so well known to almost everybody in the county that we feel it is not necessary to introduce him to the readers of the COURIER. He is popular with a large circle of friends, has established himself in the law and collection business in this city, and will settle down to housekeeping with his bride in a few days and become one of the settled business men of the town. The COURIER unites with friends in extending congratulations and best wishes for a prosperous, happy life for Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.
