

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hodgman on Thursday evening of last week at 8 o'clock, when their daughter, Loverna A. was united in marriage with Mr. Frank H. Wilson. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Chas. Evans, of our city, in the presence of a small company of friends and neighbors of the contracting parties. A bountiful wedding luncheon was served after the ceremony and was greatly enjoyed by all. The young people have spent a good portion of their lives in Cooperstown and are most estimable young people and their many friends wish them a long and happy wedded life. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Miller. The newly wedded couple were the recipients of some very pretty presents. Montana, the state that is attracting so many people at the present time, will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, for which place they will leave this week. The Courier extends hearty congratulations.
