

BERGSTROM-BATIE NUPTIALS.

Alexandria (Minn.) Post-News: The home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnt O. Olson on South F. street was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening at seven o'clock when Mrs. Olson's sister, Miss Agnes Mae Bergstrom was united in marriage to Mr. Harrison G. Batie of Dupree, South Dakota. The wedding ceremony was read by Rev. George E. Tindall, of the Methodist Episcopal church, and took place in the living room, under an arch banked with ferns, smilax and flowers. During the ceremony Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Vera Swift. Miss Emelyne Bergstrom and Mr. O. H. Bergstrom, sister and brother of the bride, attended the couple. The bride looked charming in a beautiful lace gown over silk. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Bergstrom, bridesmaid, wore a white embroidered gown and carried a bouquet of carnations. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Olson was prettily decorated for this happy occasion. At eight o'clock a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Batie left on the night train over the Great Northern for the east, where they will spend their honeymoon before returning to their home at Dupree, S. D. Only a few friends and relatives were present. Those from a distance were: Oscar and O. H. Bergstrom, Mrs. A. Bergstrom of Montivideo; Miss Agnes Erickson of Minneapolis; Miss Emelyne Bergstrom of Binford, N. D.; N. A. Bergstrom of Fessenden, N. D.; and Mrs. Marie Olson of Miles City, Mont.
