

Among the social events of the past week was the marriage of Mr. Harry J. Husel to Miss Martha Michaelis, which event took place at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Husel, who live two miles south of town, on Wednesday evening, November 6, 1912, Rev. Oscar D. Purinton being the officiating clergyman. Miss Enga Peterson acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Clarence Husel, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Miss Ina Husel played the wedding march. After the happy couple had received the hearty congratulations of those present the company sat down to a very substantial wedding feast. The out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ahlers and daughter and Mrs. Lofgren, of Ada, Minn., relatives of the groom, who made the trip from Ada by auto, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hillig, of Morgan, Minn., other relatives of the groom. Just members of the immediate family of the contracting parties were the only other guests at the wedding. The groom is the oldest son of Mr and Mrs. Husel and is a steady, sturdy young farmer while his bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Michaelis, of this city, and is a lady of many excellent qualities and will make a splendid helpmeet for her husband. The newly wedded couple have rented Dr. Westley's farm, known perhaps better as the Von Blon farm two and a half miles northeast of town, and there they will settle down in the near future to commence for themselves the battle of life with its many varied experiences. The Courier most heartily congratulates the newly weds and wishes for them all the happiness and joy there is in life with a liberal share of prosperity thrown in.
