

JOHNSON-BEIER.

Miss Katherine O. Beier and Mr. Carsten O. Johnson were united in marriage on New Year's Day, at the home of the bride's parents, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon. The ceremony was read by Rev. Fred Farrand, pastor of the M. E. church. The bride was attended by Miss Emma Johnson, sister of the groom, and the best man was Fred Beier, Jr., brother of the bride. Only relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties were present at the wedding. After the ceremony a bounteous wedding dinner was served. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beier, Sr., and is one of our city's most popular young ladies. She is in every way fitted to make the groom a good wife, and can be counted on to do her part in the battle of life. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Johnson, is also one of Carrington's best young men. He is at present employed in the Walker & Co. store and has the confidence of his employers and the esteem of all who know him. He is a young man of good habits, and a hard worker and will make good. They have the best wishes of all for a happy and prosperous married life.

The newly married young people left over the N. P. for Fargo, and upon their return to this city will go to housekeeping in the Morgan house in the north end of town.

The out of town guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Retzlaff and son of McCluskey, John Beier, of Thunder Hawk, S. D., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zuber of Fessenden, and Mr. and Mrs. Lindgren, of Cooperstown, all relatives of the bride.—Carrington Record.
