

MARTIN-BROWNSON.

The editor and family have received the following invitation which will clear up the mystery surrounding Mr. Martin's actions in furnishing a house recently:

"Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waverly Brownson request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Jessie Follette to Mr. Clarence P. Martin on Tuesday morning, July the twenty-third, at half past eight o'clock, Frankfort, Michigan."

The groom is one of the younger live business men of this city, being one of the owners of the Jameson Cash Department Store. He is a wide-awake, energetic young man. He came here about a year ago and since that time by his attention to business and manly ways has made for himself many friends who will rejoice with the Courier in this happiest event of his life and will join with us in wishing he and his bride abundant happiness and success. Mr. and Mrs. Martin will be welcomed as permanent residents of our city. They expect to return here about August first and will settle down to housekeeping on north ninth street.
