

Christmas bells rang out on Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ervin, in the form of wedding bells, when Miss Elizabeth Nellie McCloud, sister of Mrs. Ervin, was united in marriage with Mr. John LeRoy Treffry, of New Rockford, N. D. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a small company of invited guests, at 3 p. m., by the Rev. J. Chas Evans, pastor of the Congregational church. The house was very tastily decorated and the bride was attired in a very beautiful gown of Aeolian cloth. The bride since her residence in Cooperstown has made many friends through her pleasing personality. Mr. Treffry is a resident of Eddy county, near New Rockford, N. D., and is a prosperous young farmer and is held in very high esteem in his home community. Mr. and Mrs. Treffry will spend a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin and then will take up their residence in Eddy county, this state. The Courier extends the young couple its best wishes for a happy wedded life.
