

Married.

One of the most fashionable weddings of the season took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Michaelis, eight miles southwest of town, on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, when Mr. Luther E. Rowley and Miss Fridrike Michaelis were joined in the bonds of holy matrimony. The Rev. H. Styles Harriss, pastor of the M. E. church, spoke the words that united them.

The bride was beautifully attired in white silk, and a myrtle wreath adorned her brow. She was attended by her sister, Martha. The groom wore the conventional black and was attended by Mr. Herbert Sinclair. The ring ceremony was used which was very impressive. Mrs. Herman Michaelis played the wedding march.

After the ceremony the many guests sat down to a sumptuous repast.

The young couple will make their home on the farm two and a half miles southwest of town. They were recipients of many valuable and useful presents.

The Sentinel joins their host of friends in wishing them all joy and prosperity through life.
