

—A very commodious section house will be erected by the railroad company at the foot of Rollin street. The main part is to be 30x36, and the wing 20x16, two stories high. The improvements being made here by the company are substantial, indeed.