

The automobile club has been improving the road between town and the river. They have employed a man with team to smooth down the road with one of these new Splitdorf drags and it seems to do good work. If every township in the county would buy one or two of these drags and use them at the proper time the roads would be greatly improved at a nominal expense.