

Work on the new elevators is coming along in good shape. The Monarch company have their new building about half built while the Hammer-Halvorson-Beier Co. have just got nicely started on theirs. Both of them will be ready for business in about three weeks.