

SCHOOL NOTES.

William Betzlaff was the only one in the A class who was perfect in number work for the week.

Arleen Williams was perfect in spelling during the week.

In the advanced first grade the following were perfect in spelling for the entire week: Ruth Olson, Emma Pratt, Gertrude Pfeifer, Eben Josephson, Ruby Steinborn, Raymond Flynn, Ernest Karis and Emma Seldahl.

The second grade won in a spelling contest with the third grade on Friday afternoon.

The fifth grade won in a spelling match between the fourth and fifth grades last Friday afternoon. Mabel Njust is the victor.

Mr. Mason gave the sixth and seventh grades a talk on the comet last Friday.

The eighth grade and the freshman class were defeated in the spelling contest with the sophomore class on Friday afternoon.

Martin Westley visited the High School Thursday.

Mrs. Regner, Mrs. Hoffman and Mrs. Moffat attended the contest in the High School room Friday afternoon.

The High School has taken up its work for the last half of the year. Several new subjects have been added to the program.

The High School and grades will give a public entertainment in the opera house Friday and Saturday evenings, Feb. 18 and 19. The program will be announced later.