
SCHOOL NOTES.

First Grade—Dorcas Lunde was the only one in A class perfect in number work for the past week.

Fourth and Fifth Grades—The fourth grade won out in a spelling contest against the fifth grade last week, while on Monday morning of this week the fifth grade won in a contest on the multiplication tables, against the fourth grade.

Sixth and Seventh Grades—The girls' sewing club met with Jeannette Ole last Saturday. It was decided that each girl should do a definite piece of work during the year. The girls will meet with Hilda Bergstrom next time.

The sixth grade has challenged the fifth grade in a spelling contest, on the geographical names of the United States, to take place next Friday.

Eighth Grade—The eighth graders have challenged the Freshmen in a spelling contest for next Friday afternoon.

High School—This week the pupils are busy writing on state examinations.

Contesting in spelling seems to be an epidemic for it has now reached the high school. It commenced with the seniors and juniors who tried their skill at spelling last Friday. The contest ended, after two trials, in a tie.

Miss Hazel Dingle and Rev. Mecklem were visitors of the high school last Friday.

Maude Trubshaw was greatly alarmed last Friday morning on finding in her desk not only her books but "oh my," a mouse. Fortunately the mouse was dead.

Miss Bright was called home last Tuesday on account of the serious illness of her father. Miss Martin has taken her place as teacher of the third grade.
