

SCHOOL NOTES.

---

High School—Three days of the week were taken up with examinations. Several new classes will be started.

Mr. Evans was a welcome visitor at the school last week.

The sophomores challenged the juniors and seniors to a spelling contest last Friday and were very proud of their victory. The freshmen spelled in the eighth grade.

Tena Wilbur entered the high school Monday morning.

Miss Bright is back this week.

Mr. Mason gave a very interesting talk about Haley's comet Monday morning.

8th Grade—The eighth grade won in the spelling contest, Friday. Helen Berg and Olga Gilbertson were still standing when the freshmen were spelled down.

6th and 7th—The spelling contest between the fifth and sixth grades last Friday was a tie. The visitors present for the contest were Mr. and Mrs. Dingle, Mrs. Regner, Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Olson, Mrs. Wickham and Mrs. Seibold.

Mr. Evans visited school last week and gave the 6th and 7th grades a short talk.

Evelyn Josephson received 100 per cent in the last spelling examination, while Ruth Josephson spelled down the 6th grade on Thursday.

Ralph Parsons and Edward McDermott wrote very fine essays on George Washington.

Primary and 1st—Tommy Teal was the only one in A class who was perfect in number work for the week.

Rev. and Mrs. Evans were welcome visitors in our room during the week.

Myrtle McDermott and Arleen Williams were perfect in spelling for the week.
