SYVERSON'S STORE.

Fred Lewis has been appointed postmaster at Binford, receiving the appointment last week. Mr. Lewis will make a good official and we believe that he will give satisfactory service to all concerned.

Every seat in the Congregational church was occupied last Sunday morning which is evidence that Pastor Evans' sermons are appreciated. The quartet by Mrs. Bartlett, Dr. Westley and Messrs. Mason and Hartman was also much appreciated.

Geo. K. Houghton has sold his land in Cooperstown township to his brother, Wilmot Houghton. Mr. Houghton left on Saturday for Montana where he will look the country over with a view to filing on some land if he can find any that will suit him.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Primary. The primary children in the B class were perfect in spelling for the week: Mildred Udgaard; Lulu Knapp, Oscar Johnson. Vera Wallbridge, Robert Allen, Arthur Olson, Frances Butler, Marka King, Lucille Williams, Ethel Heitmann. Harold Erickson was the only one perfect in the A class for spelling for the week.

Herman Holland was perfect in number work for the week.

All the first grade were perfect in number work for the week.

The following second grade pupils had 100 in spelling for the past week: Edith Winsloe, Myrtle Black; Myrtle Frigaard, Willie Koch, Geneve Hamre, Abner Johnson, Garth Langford, Hazel Koloen, Harold Sorvig, Krift Vagle, Winnifred Wickham, Muriel Turnipseed, Cora Heitmann.

The eighth grade had a party in the fire hall last Friday night and a good is reported. Some little excitement, on the part of the eighth graders, was caused by a congregation of pupils about the building. They did not remain long however, as they were not so much as invited to look at the lunch.

High School: Genevieve Barkee has been sick with an attack of grippe.

Agnes Hoffman has discontinued her studies in the high school.

The boys are practicing base ball nights after school and we expect our team to do wonders.

Miss Oliver is suffering from a severe attack of grippe.

Law and the Queen.

The quaintness of many provisions of British law is curiously illustrated in the status of the queen of England. So far as her majesty's private business is concerned, she is not regarded by the laws and customs of England as a married woman at all. She is the only woman in Great Britain who does not come within the scope of the married woman's property act. The idea in all this is that affairs of state consume all the time of the king, and therefore no responsibility for the queen's private business rests upon him. If the queen contracted debts in her husband's name he would not be responsible for them, as any other husband in the United Kingdom would. The king cannot be sued for debt, but the queen can be. Should the king die, some authorities hold that the queen could not marry again, in case she wished to, without the license of the king's successor.—New York Tribune.
