

School Notes.

Primary, Miss Hazelton. We had fifteen pupils who were neither absent nor tardy the past month. We hope to do even better this next month.

1st and 2d. Miss Belden. There were no tardies in these grades throughout the month of September.

3d grade, Miss Bright. In the last three weeks Frank McCulloch spelled down the school twice and Russell Josephson spelled it down once. Emmet Barkee had the best mark in the room on the examination.

4th and 5th, Miss Weed. Eva Olson, Lilly Johnson, Lloyd Houghton and Ralph Hammer received 100 per cent in the final arithmetic examination. Gladys Regner and Ellen Pfeifer received 100 per cent in the final examination in spelling.

6th and 7th, Miss McCulloch. Carol Friswold was the only member of these grades who received 100 per cent in spelling in the month of September.

High School. Materials for sewing have been received and the first lesson will be given this week. Manual training will also start this week. The physiography class are studying weathering and the work of rivers. Wilhelm Vatne and George Vikingstad have just entered the high school.
