

The new Farmers Elevator has been completed and turned over to the owners. The new building is modern and up-to-date so far as the latest improved machinery can make it. Frank Barkee is at the steering wheel which insures a safe and sound business administration.