

Farmers have been having a hard time getting help this fall and in many cases the whole family has had to turn in from father and mother down to the little children to shock up and take care of the grain. The poor crop reports sent out in the early part of the season have kept men from coming in here.