

R. McLaughlin, of Lisbon, has decided to put in another jewelry store at Cooperstown and has rented the old Whidden building which he is fixing up for his new business. Mr. McLaughlin is a married man, Mrs. McLaughlin and little daughter are here now and they are sojourning at the hotel until they get settled. The gentleman is an experienced jeweler and will undoubtedly get his share of the business of the town and country.