

We learn by a phone message that the farm home of Peter Stewart, of Helena township, burned to the ground late on Friday night. The cause of the fire is not definitely known but it is thought to be from a defective chimney as the fire started in the garret. Most of the furniture was removed from the burning building. Mrs. Stewart had just returned from a winter's visit to Canada the same evening we are informed.