

Miss Janet C. Waddell has resigned her position as teacher of music and drawing in our high school and the board has promptly accepted the resignation. Miss Waddell wanted to give music lessons outside of school work and the board would not stand for it, hence her resignation. The attitude of the board is correct.