Some anxiety is felt concerning the whereabouts of a young man by the name of Ed. Walls who is supposed to have started out in the country new year's day bound for Ed. Neiernberg's.
He is about 19 years old and wore a Derby hat, light weight overcoat and no overshoes. Diligent search has been made for him but up to this time no trace of him can be found and he has not been seen since. It is possible for him to have got out of town on a train but if he did he went without his suitcase which is at P. K. Moe's hotel and he did not say a word to his sister, Miss Belle Wall, who is assistant bookkeeper in Albert Larson's store.
His home is in Wisconsin. If he started out on that day he has succumbed to the storm as he could not face it and go very far dressed as he was. Sheriff Knapp, Otto Retzlaff and Charley Houghton have seached the prairies and inquired of the farmers all through the country but no trace of him can be found.
