

The Boy Scouts started out Wednesday morning on their long hike for the Valley City Chautauqua. The first day they made Astabula and camped for the night reaching Valley City in good time the next day, and the boys are having a good time now in the splendid grounds of the the boys by auto carrying with him all the necessary commissary goods to feed the boys en route also blankets, etc. The outing will do the young scouts good.