PIONEER CITIZEN DEAD.

The Old Folks' home, Middlechurch lost one of its oldest intimates this morning, in the person of Mrs. Jane Climie, who died at 5:30, after a protracted illness. The late Mrs. Climie, who was 83 years of age, was the widow of a superannuated Congregationalist minister when she entered the home in 1908, being one of the first to reside in the establishment. For the past two years her physical condition has been anything but satisfactory, and a few months ago her declining health necessitated the constant attendance of a nurse.

Mrs. Climie will be remembered as one of the early pioneer citizens of Griggs county. Her grandson, John Climie, who is living with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Brown, is the only relative the deceased has in this section.
