

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The following students of the high school reached a standing of 90 per cent or above in all their studies during the month of October: Thelma Ayrea, Hilda Bergstrom, Emma Black, Lulu Berg, Esther Dahlin, Mary Erickson, Anna Lunde, Hattie Smith and Lenora Vatne.

The report of the May state high school board examinations of all the high schools of the state has just been received. Only 65 per cent of those taking the examinations throughout the state passed. 8 per cent of those who took the examination from Cooperstown passed. This is 16 per cent above the average. Only four schools had a higher average, Dickinson, Lakota, Devils Lake and Carrington reached a higher per cent.

The high school music class composed some melodies last week.

The botany class is making a microscopic study of stems.

The Caesar class is beginning Caesar's second campaign.

The first year English class have taken up the study of Hale's "The Man Without a Country."

The sophomore English class is studying Burns' "The Cotter's Saturday Night," and have just finished a critical study of "Arnold's "Sohrab and Rustum."

The mechanical drawing class is working on geometrical problems. This is a new course which has been put in new this year and is proving quite popular. The class numbers nineteen.

The manual training class is working on tabourettes and umbrella stands.