

Rev. T. E. Sweger arrived at Cooperstown last Thursday. The reverend gentleman is the new pastor of the Lutheran church and was duly installed as pastor last Sunday morning. Rev. P. A. Thoreson, of Hanaford, installed the new pastor. The congregation of the Lutheran church has been without a pastor for over a year and the people are greatly pleased that regular church work has been resumed. Mr. Sweger was greeted by a very large congregation last Sunday and he seems to have made a very favorable impression with his people. The Courier wishes for the new pastor success in his work in this and surrounding country.
