

ple's university.

The board of education has elected Norman C. Koontz, of Tyrone, Pa., superintendent of our public schools for next year and Mr. Koontz has accepted the position. He is a graduate of Yale university, has had several years experience and if recommendations count for anything at all should be a first-class man. He is married and will arrive here probably the latter part of the summer.

---

---