

Judge J. A. Coffey, who was appointed to the bench by Gov. Burke to succeed Judge Burke, opened his first term of court in Griggs county at Cooperstown on Monday of this week. Judge Coffey makes a very good impression on the bench. He keeps business moving right along and is falling into the work like an old hand at the business. He is a very pleasant gentleman, also, and seems to know how to get along with the attorneys and court officials.