

The Farmers' Club of Lovell held a special meeting in the Sansburn schoolhouse last Friday evening. It was a social session and there was a large attendance. Dancing and cards furnished amusement for those present and it is needless to say that every minute of the time was enjoyed. The ladies served a fine lunch and that always makes a hit—especially with the men folks. These get together meetings of the club are a good thing for the neighborhood.