

OLD SETTLERS' PICNIC

Will be Held at the River, Four Miles East of Cooperstown, on Thursday, June 15.

Come to the picnic and see who the old settlers are, who have made Griggs and Steele counties what they are today. The old settlers of Griggs and Steele counties will hold their annual picnic on at the river four miles east of Cooperstown. All old settlers in good standing, their wives and children under 15 will be admitted free. All persons over 12 years of age not members of the old settlers association will be charged 25c admission to the ground, to meet expenses of band speakers, ball game, etc.

THURSDAY, JUNE 15,

PROGRAM

1:00 p. m.—Address of welcome and object of organization by C. D. Purinton.

1:30 p. m.—Address on Java by A. M. Baldwin.

2:00 p. m.—Address, A. E. Chamberlain, South Dakota.

3:30 p. m.—Ball Game.

Tug of war between Griggs and Steele counties for silver cup.

Bring your dinners with you. There will be a stand on the ground where refreshments can be purchased.

Everybody come, leave dull care behind, and have a social time with the old settlers.