

Mrs. Leland Rhodes was hit in the eye by a base ball during the game last Tuesday evening between the married and single men, which is the only calamity resulting from the game so far. She has a very painful as well as highly decorated eye, but fortunately nothing serious will result from the accident.