

School Notes.

The Literary Societies of the High School and eighth grade were organized last Friday afternoon.

There were two societies formed A and B. Of society A, Tena Regner was elected president, Oscar Thompson, vice president; Fred Graff, secretary. The officers of society B are: Don Teal, president; DeForest Payne, vice president, and Clara Hammer, secretary. The program committees consisting of the societies and the teachers of the high school met on Friday evening and reported Monday morning as follows: The society A is to meet November twenty-fourth and B on December eighth, each program is to consist of compositions, recitation, music, a literary paper and a debit. Each society is asked to find a suitable name for itself.

Elizabeth Patterson, Elenore Sinclair, Lois Cussons and Gladys Olson were visitors of the Primary-room Friday afternoon.

John Davidson entered the primary room Monday.

Fred Stevens has returned to school after being on the sick list for a week.

George Mills was welcomed by the high school and eighth grade Monday morning at which time he entered the eighth grade.

Stella Houghton was missed by the teachers and pupils last week while she was having a brief experience in instructing the young minds.
