

PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

Board of County Commissioners,
Griggs County, North Dakota.

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION.

In pursuance of call of April 8th the Board met in special session this 18th day of April, 1905.

All members present.

The following communication was received:

To the Honorable Board of County Commissioners of Griggs County, N. D.

Gentlemen:—

The list of names required by law to be kept in the office of the Clerk of Court from which to draw jurors having been depleted by drawing a jury in November, 1904, and by the removal of some of the persons from the county, you are hereby respectfully requested to furnish me with the names of forty-six men from said county who are qualified to serve as jurors, to fill up the list as required by law.

Very Respectfully,

Oscar D. Purinton,

Clerk, District Court.

Dated at Cooperstown, N. D., this 10th day of April, 1905.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by H. H. Bateman.
