

—Mr. John Syverson has offered the Methodist church a furnace, which if accepted, as it unquestionable will be, will be a great improvement. It will be necessary for the congregation to raise money and have the excavating done and there will be some other costs, but Mr. Syverson's generous proposition should cause those interested to readily sacrifice something to assist in putting this church in a better position in many ways.