

—The Piatt Electric Co. is hustling to get the necessary work done so that the plant can start up at the earliest possible moment. The machinery is expected here any time this week and the building will be ready for its installation. The poles are going up and the plant will be ready to begin operations by Dec. 1 anyway if nothing unforeseen happens to prevent it, and we expect to be using electric lights before that time.