

The nine weeks old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crook was found dead in bed with them Sunday morning, having died sometime during the night. The child was in perfect health the night previous when it was put to bed and it is thought that the baby was smothered to death. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon and interment made in the cemetery.