

The funeral of Palmer Johnson took place last Friday, the services being held in the Lutheran church and interment being made in the cemetery. The stores and school were closed during the afternoon to permit everyone to attend the funeral.