

CALLED HOME.

Mrs. Otto H. Marquardt died at her home in this city a few minutes after six o'clock Monday morning from quick consumption. She was only twenty years old and was married to Mr. Marquardt a few days before last Christmas. She had been ailing from a few days after her marriage and kept growing steadily worst. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Saunders who live down by Gallatin. The funeral services were held in the Congregational church Wednesday afternoon, the funeral sermon being preached by Rev. W. W. Hart. The remains were laid to rest in the Coopers town cemetery. The sympathy of many friends is extended to Mr. Marquardt and the stricken family for the great loss they have sustained.
