

Mrs. J. H. McDermott accompanied by Mrs. Wahlmeier returned home last Friday from Colorado, bringing with them the remains of the late J. H. McDermott. They were met at the train by the members of the Odd Fellows' lodge who escorted the body to the Congregational church where the funeral was held at 2 p. m. Rev. O. D. Purinton preached the funeral sermon and the Odd Fellows used part of their burial service from the ritual. Mrs. David Bartlett and Messrs. Geo. E. Macconnell, F. B. King and W. D. Hartman sang a beautiful piece, "For God is Love." The casket was smothered with wreaths of beautiful flowers. The remains were taken to the cemetery where they were laid to rest along side of a little baby daughter on the family lot.
