

In the latter part of February last the summons also came to Mr. Tobias Olson (Flagestad), another pioneer in Pilot Mound. He was also an old man who had been crippled up and confined to the house for a number of years. We have failed to receive particulars as to his exact age and date of death.