

Austin Peterson died on the farm of Martin Wold, near Binford, last Friday night at 11 o'clock after a short illness with typhoid fever. He leaves a wife and little ten-months-old baby. The deceased is a carpenter by trade and formerly lived in this city. He was a member of Cooperstown Lodge No. 37, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, who have been looking after him during his sickness. His remains were brought to this city last Saturday and interment made in the cemetery Monday afternoon. The funeral was held under the direction of the lodge, Revs. Vikingstad and Dingle officiating. The bereaved wife and little one have the sympathy of their friends in their great loss.
