

News was received here Sunday of the death of Mrs. Paul Amlie, at a hospital in Fargo, death resulting from cancer of the stomach. The remains were brought here Tuesday. The funeral was held yesterday from the Norwegian Lutheran church, Rev. Dydvik of McHenry, officiating. Mrs. Amlie was born in Norway in 1874, making her 38 years of age. She was married in 1896. Besides the husband, seven children are left to mourn her departure. The Times joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved ones.—Binford Times

The Courier extends its sympathy to Mr. Amlie and his children who have sustained such a great loss.