

OBITUARY.

At 6 o'clock on Saturday morning, February 18, the gentle spirit of Agnes Janett Ole winged its flight to its eternal home. "Little Janett" was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Ole of this city, and was born on the townsite of Cooperstown fourteen years ago the twenty-eighth of this month. Last summer she was taken with inflammatory rheumatism but recovered somewhat and started in to school last fall but after going two weeks was taken sick again with this trouble, which led to other complications, heart trouble mainly, and passed away as stated above. She was a bright, winsome little girl, a popular favorite with her schoolmates and friends, and the idol of her parents and sisters. Her death is indeed a sad blow to this worthy family and in this hour of deep sorrow they have the heartfelt sympathy of all. The funeral services were held at the Ole residence Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. J. M. Jenson, pastor of the Lutheran church, conducting the services. A male quartet furnished music for the occasion. The floral offerings were very beautiful, the house being filled up with beautiful flowers, a tribute to the memory of the dear little girl who had passed from the scene of earthly trouble to her heavenly reward. The remains were laid to rest in the Cooperstown cemetery. Six of the high school students acted as pall bearers. They were Selmer Larson, Ralph Parsons, Arthur Olson, Sigrud Lunde, Milton Houghton and Johnnie Alberts. During the hour of the funeral the stores and business places were closed and the school dismissed. To the father, mother, and two sisters who are left to mourn the loss of this loved
