

Mrs. Sherman Painter died at one of the Fargo hospitals at 4 o'clock a m., Monday morning, August 5. Her death was caused by septic fever which followed several operations that she went through at the hospital. The deceased was Annie Steinborn before her marriage and she was the daughter of Mrs. August Steinborn. Her death is a hard blow to the sorrowing husband, mother, brothers and sisters who have been bereft of a loved one. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at the Lutheran church, Rev. J. F. L. Bohnhoff, of Valley City, officiating. The remains were interred in the Cooperstown cemetery. The bereaved husband and family have the sympathy of many friends. The deceased was a good little woman, of a cheerful, happy disposition, taking up life's joys and burdens in an uncomplaining way. Her early demise is to be regretted and it was the hope of many friends that the brave fight she made to overcome the ravages of the disease which had seized her would ultimately lead to victory but it was ordained otherwise and her spirit has winged its way to that home not made with hands but eternal in the heavens.
