

Walum Items.

The young people's meeting at John Nelson's Sunday was well attended. Next meeting will be in Walum.

Ice cream social at Anton Rice's Sunday. Among those present were H. H. Groven and Anundsen from Hannaford.

Albin Forsberg went to Valley City Monday for treatment for brights disease. An operation is likely to be necessary.

Ed Everson, T. Mossing, O. Braaten, O. Rognlien, Mr. and Mrs. Rev. Thoreson were to Fargo to hear the singers. They say it was fine.

The Greenfield base ball team organized and are now practicing up on the ball grounds here in Walum. They aim to bring the cup to Walum. That's right, aim high.

Hans Larson, an old pioneer, died at his home Saturday night. He has been sick all spring and his death was not unexpected, yet it makes us who knew him feel sad that he is dead.

Rasmus Larson's girl, Alma, nineteen years of age, was buried the 10th. She was ailing with heart trouble, in addition to which she contracted a cold that developed into pneumonia. Rev. Thoerson preached the funeral sermon, which was very impressive. The bereaved family has our sincere sympathy.

Dover Items.

Seeding is about through with in this section and the farmers can have a little "breathing spell" before haying starts. Several are contemplating a trip to Spiritwood lake.

Pupils neither absent nor tardy for the month ending June 2d in District No. 4, are Mary Stewart and Flora Stewart. The enrollment for the month was fifteen.

Iver Shaar is in the hospital at Valley City where he is receiving treatment for his foot which was hurt in a self-feeder two years ago and which is again troubling him. We hope for a speedy recovery.

The teachers of the township, Miss Louise Olson, Miss Louise Kass and Mr. H. G. Danforth, spent last week at Cooperstown in attendance at the teachers institute. All report a profitable session under the instruction of Prof. Callahan of Casselton and Miss Haley of Cooperstown.

Work on the new telephone line from Dazey is being rapidly pushed and before long the melodious voices of the people of this neighborhood will be heard in Hannaford and Dazey. All goes to show that "the city is moving to the country," as the expression is. The