
Died.

Hannaford Enterprise.

After a sickness of several months, Hans Larson Stai, died Saturday night, June 10, aged about 55 years. The deceased was one of the early settlers of this neighborhood, and for the last 20 years he has lived on his farm 4 miles northeast of town. He leaves a wife and several grown up children who have the sympathy of a very wide circle of friends who highly esteemed the departed.
