

A very pretty home wedding occurred on Wednesday, Jan. 27, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. LaValley of Dazey, when their daughter, Lillian Victrine, was united in marriage to Mr. Herbert Curtis of Broadview, Rev. Adelbert Hayes performing the ceremony. While Miss Florence Curtis, a cousin of the groom, played the wedding march, the young couple attended by Miss Laura LaValley and Mr. Lawrence LaValley, entered the room and took their places before the minister. The bride is one of Dazey's popular young ladies. She was dressed in cream silk and wore a veil with a wreath of carnations, while in her hand she carried a large bouquet of roses. The groom was dressed in the conventional black. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Curtis. About twenty-six guests witnessed the ceremony and partook of the wedding dinner. Many handsome and useful presents were received. The young couple took the afternoon train for Duluth and other points in Minnesota. They will be at home to their many friends at their farm in Broadview after their return. Everyone joins in wishing them a happy and prosperous journey through life.
