

Last evening, December 7, 1910, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Naylor, in Breckenridge, Minn., occurred the marriage of Mr. Basil Edmondson and Miss Estella B. Houghton, Rev. Thompson, rector of the Episcopal church of that city performing the ceremony. Mrs. Jas. Edmondson, mother of the groom, and Miss Grace Houghton, sister of the bride, attended the wedding from this city. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. James Edmondson of this city, and has been a member of this community for a number of years—practically growing up right here in Cooperstown. He is a young man of sterling worth and integrity of splendid habits, genial and gentlemanly, and has a host of warm friends who rejoice in his success. He is employed by Mr. A. Rhodes in the hardware store and his strict attention to business has won for him the confidence and respect of his employer. The bride is the daughter of Mr. George Houghton, and she, too, has practically grown up in this community. She is a fine young lady with a happy disposition and will make her husband a splendid helpmeet. She is very popular among her large circle of friends and acquaintances. The newly wedded young people have gone to South Dakota for a little trip and will visit Aberdeen where they have friends. They are expected home next week and will settle down to housekeeping in their home on east Burrell avenue. A host of friends in this city and the county at large will join with the Great Family Journal in extending hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Basil Edmondson.
